II. Brief project report

Prof.(Dr) Ranjan Kumar Mallik, Dean, Department of Fine Arts, Chitkara School of Art & Design conducted an online lecture on 'Value of Aesthetics in Human Life' through the VC lecture series.

The VC Lecture Series: Value of Aesthetics in Human Life

The central virtue of these lectures is that Wittgenstein never loses a sense of the complexity of our aesthetic engagements, our language attending and in cases manifesting those engagements, and the contextually embedded nature of the aesthetic actions he is working to elucidate. Nor does he lose a sense of the relation—a relation necessary to the meaning of the aesthetic language we use – between the aesthetically-descriptive expressions we employ within particular contexts and ...

His earlier discussion of aesthetics in his lectures in 1933, taken down by Alice Ambrose and published in 1979 (AL), presents largely the same ideas, but is much sketchier. The recent publication of G. E. Moore's more detailed notes of the same lectures (ML), however, enriches the picture in interesting ways.
